

Thank you for helping us by taking the Acts 2 Church Survey!

Welcome to the Acts 2 Church Survey!

The purpose of this survey is to provide your church with an assessment of its strengths and areas for potential growth. As you consider each question, you will need to think about your experiences with your local church. Your responses will be anonymous. No one from your church will see your responses or know that you have participated in this survey unless you tell them.

The 75-question survey should require around 15 minutes to complete. Please respond to each statement by checking the appropriate box. Be sure to note that the “Strongly Disagree” response is at the top of the list and the “Strongly Agree” response is at the bottom. Please take a moment to provide us with some additional information by answering the questions below.

Thanks for your participation!

Thank you for your participation and your commitment to helping this church reach its full Kingdom potential.

Please deliver your responses to the survey administrator so that they can be entered in the online survey system and included in the congregation's results.

In reviewing the compiled results of the congregation's survey responses, our leadership team will gain valuable insight about our church's health. This is information we would not have been able to access without your help!
